Title of event: Money &More! Multi-Agency Sustainable Infrastructure Resource Forum for California Tribes and Tribal Organizations

Description: This Multi-Agency Sustainable Infrastructure Resource Forum will provide California Tribes and tribal organizations an opportunity to learn about funding and other assistance available for tribal sustainable infrastructure projects. Representatives from several agencies will present information about resources available to tribes for sustainable infrastructure. In the afternoon, attendees will meet individually with agency representatives to discuss specific projects and to identify and rally funding and resources to successfully complete projects. Sustainable infrastructure spans many areas including renewable energy, utility lines, roads, sidewalks & curbs, pollution prevention and waste disposal, drinking water wastewater infrastructure, housing, community facilities and centers, and much more.
